

Shermanbury Circular

This is a really varied walk of around 1 hour 40 minutes. It follows a beautiful stretch of the River Adur before crossing into woodland and along to the 14th Century church of St. Giles.

In winter, this walk can get rather muddy in places so wellingtons are advised!

