Fulkingites, meet David and Emily. If they weren't so young and energetic we'd call them Landlord and Landlady of the Shepherd & Dog. We wouldn't call them 'new', because Emily has been here for 4 years and David for 2. But changes in the management structure have given them the responsibility of revving up the ol' S&D. And they will. Main thing: relationship with the Village. Good. Stuff.

F.F.F.F.FAIR to F.F.F.F.FESTIVAL

Looking through the enormously complicated and detailed spreadsheet that sets out all the doings and beings, the people and activities, the stalls and sideshows, that go to make up Fulking Fair in all its magnificence, renders one with the job title of 'editor' fairly terrifyingly close to complete stasis. How to make sense of all this? We got Gladiators, we got Ice Cream Tricycles, we got Pony Rides, we got Punch'n'Judy, we got Pizza Oven, we got Rubbish Collection, we got Owls, Alpacas and Ferrets. We got Dog Show. We got Tattoos. We got electricity, even. What haven't we got?

Well, we haven't got Placido Domingo. Or Wayne Rooney. Or Zoe Ball (though they have got her up at Newtimber on the 12th, folks. Be there). But somehow that doesn't really seem to matter, because we do got so much that it's safe to say no one in his or her right mind would argue with the claim that we got the best fair in the local domain, and maybe even much further afield. How did that happen? Because Fulking is magic, that's how.

There is a line in this Excel document that says: 'Music' – Aidan Walker'. And though I prefer generally to remain as incognito as poss as the PP Ed, here I do have to put up my hand and say yes, that's me. Although our local celebrity violinist looks as if this year he's in the 'Don't got' category, we do got more music than ever, and to my mind much more quality than ever as well. We got recorded artistes, we got the Brighton City Singers, we got semi or 100% professionals. That's why we say... F.F.F.F.... estival. Be there. Aidan Walker

Ladybrook Spring Project Update

Due to growing concerns over the design of the proposed scheme and the need to incorporate a grid over the top it, there has been a major rethink about the project. Darren Rolf, Senior Community Solutions Officer and his Volunteer Development Team will be heading up the project with AS MANY VOLUNTEERS FROM FULKING AS POSSIBLE.

The proposed design is to lay a wooden support and concrete foundation at the base of the spring and lay the flints on to this – the sandbags will remain in place behind the flint work and will also provide support. At the top of the spring the lining flints will progress into a wall. The wall will be the same height as the lowest rung of the current barrier, but this barrier will be built into the wall, thus concealing the lower half. The top of the wall will be finished with topping stones. The upper rail of the current barrier will be concealed with a square wooden casing and we can paint the concrete posts brown to blend in.

Volunteers are required to help with all aspects of this project, from digging, brick laying to general labouring if you have any special talents please don't be shy! Ladybrook Spring needs you. If you are interested in helping with this project please can you contact Andrea Dickson on andreadicksonfpc@gmail.com

Celebrating? Or just like to party?

The Parish Council would ask that anybody planning a celebration would bear in mind the following:

Fireworks – Please advise people in the local area to enable them to keep pets inside, and take precautions as necessary for livestock and other animals.

Music – Again with music please advise people of your intentions well in advance and have consideration for your neighbours.
