FAIR PLAY

Burgess Financial Services sponsors the printing of Pigeon Post

The Pigeon of the Future, or: Village Communication Issues

Believe me, ladies and gentlemen, I really don't want to do this. I love the Pigeon dearly and I love being able to serve him up to my lovely home and its lovely people. But, more for the sake of those very people than my own, I have to say that I think I'm at a point where I can't do it any more. You will all have noticed that the ol' boy has been flying increasingly rarely in recent months. Years, actually, if I'm honest. This year you've had a Feb, a March, a May, a July and a September. Much as I love him, he has to go to the bottom of the list when work comes in. And these next few months are looking very busy indeed. If you are a willing and able replacement, get in touch. Or maybe we should just crank up the website? Go to fulking.net. Aidan
