Bobobservation No. 9 - Fulking Fair

This year's fair and dog show takes place in Downside Meadow on Sunday 26th July from 12 noon until 5pm. Many villagers have already offered their services and the Social Committee, having recently set aside £3,500 for repairs to the village hall roof, continue to give a considerable amount of time and thought to maintaining and indeed improving the high standard set in previous years.

As winner of the Argos 'Best Community event of 2014', this is no easy task.

How you can help, if you are not already doing so, is as follows:

1. Respond to the repeated requests for Tombola prizes, no matter how inexpensive, by contacting Louise on 773 [jay&louise@gmail.com] or Bob on 271 [bob.pamrowland@btinternet.com]. We are desperate for these.
2. Make sure you and your family and friends come on 26th July.
3. Offer to relieve one of the villagers who is already involved with the fair when you come on the day. It can be a hot and tiring day without a break.
4. If you are still around at the close, please help with the tidying up.

HAVE A GREAT DAY!

Concert with strings (and strawberries)

The Midsummer String Octet will be giving a concert at Newtimber Church on Sunday July 5th at 2:30pm. The professional musicians will perform a 1½ hour classical music programme. We will then walk or drive to Newtimber Place gardens for strawberry teas and punch, finishing about 5:30pm.

Tickets: £20 for adults, £10 for children include refreshments from Shirley Murrell on 353 [shirleymurrell@btinternet.com] and Lucy Dalrymple 01273 832009 [lucy@arboreaters.co.uk].

Free parking is available at both venues, and please bring your own folding chairs or blankets for the garden.

Property Boom

As spring has turned to summer and the flowers blossom, so it seems has the local property market – blossomed that is. Whatever one's feelings about affordability, many people are interested in this phenomenon. Those clever 'web wizards' at www.fulking.net have pulled all this together on a new page of local property offerings. Look for "Local Property" on the left of Home Page under "About Our Village".

Night Owls Beware

Saddlescombe Road and Devils Dyke Road will be closed between 12.30am and 9.00am on Sunday 12th July thanks to the 2015 Night Time London to Brighton Bike Ride.
