The Heat for Health partnership aims to support eligible households with people over 65 and children under five to keep warm in the house. It offers free information on how to keep energy bills affordable, provides funding for energy efficiency measures and gives help and support to access other assistance.

Heat for Health – drop-in events

Come and see us. Pick up your free room thermometer cards. Discuss with us energy efficiency measures and grants available – and the support provided by Heat for Health.
