January Events

Holy Trinity, Poynings has a small exhibition of photos from around the village in the open church. Some of the photos were used for the 2020 calendar, others were the entries from various people from in and around the village.

The exhibition marks the start of our 2020 celebratory year.

All welcome

Saturday 11th January 2020, 3pm Pyecombe Church of the Transfiguration commence their 850th year celebrations with a musical event; Nymphes et Monstres is an international ensemble of four musicians: Kat Carson (soprano, England), Dorota Matejová (traverso, Slovakia), Yotam Haran (cello, Israel) and Punto Bawono (theorbo and lute, Netherlands). Specialising in the performance of French baroque music, all ensemble members play on historical instruments (or copies thereof) and are currently studying (or recently graduated from) early music performance programmes. Scènes Pastorales delves into the world of Greek mythology, showing pastoral scenes as seen through the eyes of the French Baroque composers

Tickets will be available on the door but booking in advance is strongly recommended!

Tickets: £10 (students £5 and under 14s free)
